Spend the night at the museum! Plan an end-of-the-year celebration or just for fun, OMSI Camp-Ins are guaranteed to be a unique experience that’s warm, dry and exciting this winter and spring! Activities are aligned with state content standards for science and provide plenty of opportunity for team building and problem solving. Your students will come alive with excitement as they explore the museum, participate in hands-on activities and experience the Empirical Theater.

ACTIVITIES
Planetarium show, STEM activities, museum exploration, Empirical Theater show, submarine tour, and museum admission the following day.

SEASON 2017
February 15, 16
March 8, 9, 22, 23, 30
April 5, 6, 12, 13, 19, 27
May 3, 10, 11, 17, 18, 24, 25
June 1, 7

WHAT ELSE SHOULD YOU KNOW
- Museum Camp-Ins include dinner, snack and continental breakfast.
- We ask that all groups provide at least a 1:5 adult to child ratio.
- Register at least 2 weeks in advance.
- The minimum capacity for a Museum Camp-in is 100 total participants, though this does not have to come from a single group. Final numbers will be gathered 30 days before the program date to determine whether the minimum has been met, if not the program will be canceled.

Spend the night aboard OMSI’s USS Blueback, a retired U.S. Navy submarine. Experience what it’s like to live on a submarine, explore the torpedo room, peer through a periscope and sleep in the crew’s quarters. Learn about density and buoyancy as you explore how submarines are designed to dive and surface.

ACTIVITIES
Submarine programming, submarine technical tour, planetarium show, museum exploration, and museum admission the following day.
